Improvements on Old Sayings.

"Never do things by halves," unless you open oysters. Whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well. Let your motto be "Excelsior!" Single out some specialty for which you have genius, then devote yourself to it thoroughly, and you won't have to look for a job, the job will be looking for you. The most brilliant men are often lamentable failures. Be thorough! Stick like the postage stamp—till you get there. Dogged does it.

Take a Cab.

A friend the other day came in bewailing the ruin done to her pretty shoes, frock, hat, etc., by a heavy shower, through having to wait for an omnibus. "You ought to have taken a cab," I told her. The idea of such extravagance quite appalled her; yet more than the amount spent would have been saved to her wearing apparel. This fallacy of judgment is very common among women, I have observed.

His Efforts Wasted.

Lecturer on Art—"Before I sit down I shall be happy to answer any questions that any of you may wish to ask." Gentleman (in audience)—"I have enjoyed the lecture much, sir, and have understood it all except a few technical terms. Will you please tell me what you mean by the words perspective, fresco, and mickle-anjelo?" (Lecturer sits down discouraged.)—Chicago Tribune.

Curing by Sympathetic Magic.

"A friend of mine came across a native sitting in the veranda of a house from which groans proceeded," Mr. E. Thurston stated at the British Royal Society of Arts in a lecture on the natives of southern India. "He learned that the man's wife was sitting on a swing studded with sharp nails in order to cure him by sympathetic magic of some trifling ailment."

Trout for British Colonies.

Britishers are the first colonizing race and the most resolute sportsmen in the world, so that it was natural that British colonial waters should have been the first scenes of experiment in artificial propagation of fish. Trout have been established in the streams of Kashmir, the Nilgheries and Ceylon, and of New Zealand.

Case of Unselfish Crusaders.

Cynical.

"Biggins must be very much in love with his wife to buy her so much jewelry." "Perhaps," answered Miss Cayenne, "although it is sometimes difficult to determine whether expensive gifts are inspired by affection or a bad conscience."

Husbands Take Second Place Now.

A Consistent Deceiver.

Gov. Stubbs of Kansas has received a pathetic letter from a lunatic of the state penitentiary who has spent 19 of his 26 years in prison, begging for "one more chance to make good."

Would Have to Take Roots and All.

She went into a Fifth avenue hair-dresser's shop to have her head shampooed. She wore her hair in a Psyche knot. The shampooer seemed to be a trifle rough, and finally her tugs at the Psyche knot became so forceful that the woman in the chair cried out in pain. "What are you trying to do; pull my head off?" she exclaimed. "I am trying to get your Psyche knot off," replied the shampooer, "but it won't come. How did you ever get it pinned on so firmly?" The customer almost shrieked: "Come off! Why, it's my own hair!"—N. Y. Tribune.

Beetle Hunting in Queensland.

A reward of 1s. 3d. a pound was recently offered by the Queensland sugar planters, writes a Brisbane (Australia) correspondent, for beetles of the destructive-sugar cane grub. Hundreds of men and boys have now taken up beetle hunting as a profession. One man earns £5 a week throughout the "beetle season," and the boys make from £2 a week.

Where Mr. Wabash Lost Out.

Mr. Wabash (to Miss Waldo of Boston)—"I suppose, Miss Waldo, that your father is in business in Boston?" Miss Waldo—"Oh, yes; he is one of the prominent shoe manufacturers there." Mr. Wabash—"Ah, indeed. I have never had much business experience myself. Now, about how long does it take your father to make, say, a good eight-dollar shoe?"

CONNECTICUT LEGISLATURE

Sentiment of the House, "Get Down to Work, No Summer Recess"—Senate Passes Auto Bill—Appropriation for Current Expenses for Norwich Hospital for Insane for Two Years.

Hartford, June 29.—The senate was called to order at 10.30 by President pro tem. Brooks. Prayer by Chaplain Seaton.

Automobile Bill Passed.

Senator Alsop called from the table the general automobile bill and amendments. The bill as amended was passed and the constitution of rules was transmitted to the house.

The amendment substituting the word gasoline for "combustion engine" was passed.

The amendment striking out the word "whistle" in line 17, section 6, was rejected.

The amendment raising the age limit for drivers of automobiles to 15 years was adopted.

The amendment in reference to the operation of vehicles on public highways was adopted.

The amendment requiring dealers to pay $10 license for private automobiles was rejected.

The amendment extending the time to two years for holding a drive responsible for the death of a pedestrian was rejected.

The amendment providing that an automobile shall be stopped on approaching a street car that is stationary or about to start, instead of allowing three miles an hour as a rate of speed, was rejected.

The amendment to prevent a city from fixing a limit of ten miles an hour was rejected.

The amendment fixing the penalty for taking an automobile without the consent of the owner at a fine of $100 and imprisonment of fifteen days was rejected.

The amendment fixing the maximum penalty at $500 and one year in jail for violating the speed law was adopted.

Senator Blakeslee offered an amendment that for each engine the manufacturer shall pay a tax of $1. Senator Blakeslee said the greatest injury done the roads was done by the tax.

Senator Alsop said he did not object to the amendment, as it had a great deal of merit in it.

Senator Fenn said that those in charge of test cars are the grossest violators of the law of the road and the speed law. Forty and forty-five miles an hour through the village streets was not unusual. He favored the amendment. The test cars do the most damage to the roads.

Senator Middleton favored the amendment and wished it could be applied to test cars that come from other states into Connecticut.

Senator Stiles favored the amendment and said the roads were damaged by test cars much more than by regular traffic. He thought the tax should be $2 per engine.

The amendment of Senator Blakeslee was adopted.

Senator Stiles offered an amendment that the limit of speed of vehicles passing a trolley car that is stopped, be five miles an hour. Senator Alsop opposed the amendment of Senator Stiles.

Senator Stiles said that drivers ought to be allowed to exercise their judgment. He did not think the senate should be influenced by what the house might do.

Senator Higgins said he would vote for the amendment of Senator Stiles, not because he believed in it but because it was the best proposition. It was easier to run a machine five miles an hour than three miles.

The amendment of Senator Stiles was rejected by a vote of 11 to 12.

Senator Higgins offered an amendment that on or before August 1, 1915, the governor shall appoint a commissioner of motor vehicles at an salary of $2,500 a year who shall have a deputy at a salary of $1,500, and power to employ clerks.

Senator Higgins said it was necessary to have a department to take charge of automobiles owing to the complicated character of the proposed law. He was at first opposed to the creation of a department, but he has changed his opinion. The secretary of state has now all the duties which he and his office force ought to be asked to attend to.

Senator Alsop opposed the amendment.

The amendment of Senator Higgins was rejected.

Senator Alsop offered an amendment making verbal changes in the bill suggested by the clerk of bills. The amendment was adopted.

To Employ Legal Assistance.

The senate concurred with the house in passing a resolution authorizing the joint special committee on the public utilities bill to employ necessary legal assistance.

Mr. Hayes of Waterbury presented the following resolution:

That the joint special committee on public utilities be, and it hereby is, empowered to employ such legal assistance as it may deem necessary for the drafting of a substitute for house bill No. 578 and the committee is hereby authorized and directed to draw his orders on the treasurer for the expenses thereby incurred on the presentation of vouchers properly certified by the clerk of said committee.

Mr. Hayes said that the committee had practically united on the general features of a bill and as it must report by July 7 it needed legal aid.

Rules were suspended and the resolution was passed, then transmitted immediately to the senate.

Licensing of Hunters.

Mr. Hall of Willington called from the table a bill concerning the licensing of hunters and offered a minor amendment.

Calendar.

Men on Trains.

Mr. Chandler of Rocky Hill, chairman of the committee on railroads, explained the committee's favorable report on a bill concerning railroads and the number of men employed on trains. The bill is as follows:

The railroad commissioners shall have power to order, after a public hearing, such changes in the number of employees upon freight trains as in their opinion will conserve the public safety or the safety of such employees. Mr. Chandler then said that as the proponent of the bill, Mr. Malone, of Bristol, was absent, he desired that the matter be passed, retaining its place on the calendar. Mr. Malone wished, he said, to offer an amendment.
